Dear Family,

We thank God for our fellowship in the Good News of Jesus Christ. What joy and privilege we share in worship, fellowship, and service for God!

A GWAC couple stated that their 'final gift to God' was via their Will. They saw it as their final way of thanking God, and a final gift to Him for His work and for His glory. They were also excited to use this way to leave an important final testimony to their lives as Christians. They imagined this memorable witness to the importance of God in their lives to their family, especially the younger generations, via their bequest. They imagined the benefit of their bequest to God's work, and to His glory.

Our Will and testament is a significant personal statement. It highlights the people and causes that are dear to our heart. Our bequest to the parish will contribute to its ongoing life and ministry.

Thank you for all that you have contributed to God's work through the Glen Waverley Anglican Church. Thank you for considering a final gift to God through a bequest to your parish.

Make a provision in your Will

Leaving a gift to St Barnabas' Glen Waverley Anglican Church is a wonderful way of thanking God for your life and investing in the future life and ministry of GWAC.

Your bequest is a generous investment in your parish's mission to be “a caring community, making, maturing, and mobilising disciples of Jesus Christ, locally and globally”.

A provision in your Will is a final way of thanking God, and a final gift to Him for His work and for His glory. Your gift through your bequest, will be greatly appreciated.

Making your wish formal

Making a bequest in your Will is a simple procedure - although in preparing your first Will, or amending your existing Will, you should always consult a solicitor. However, the suggested form of words below may be of assistance to you and your solicitor.

BEQUEST (Suggested Wording)

'I DIRECT my Executor to pay an amount of dollars ($) to MELBOURNE ANGLICAN TRUST CORPORATION of 209 Flinders Lane, Melbourne Vic, 3000, for the general purposes of The Anglican Parish of St Barnabas' Glen Waverley Anglican Church.'

We trust that this brochure will have been of assistance to you in your consideration of making a bequest to St Barnabas' Glen Waverley Anglican Church in your Will.
